PRESIDENT LINDLEY'S PLAN.

AN AUTOMATIC WAY TO PAY BONDS.

He Would Create a Sinking Fund of $4,000 Yearly, Which, Compounding Itself, Would in 30 Years More Than Pay the Entire Bond Issue and the Roads Could Be Available Immediately.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

Some opposition is expressed to the plan adopted by the central committee of the Good Roads Club for the purpose of macadamizing our public roads on the ground that it would leave a great debt hanging like a pall over future generations, and having heard of such remarks, I went to figuring, for it is a common saying that figures do not lie.

I find, and give the figures below, that if we pay into a sinking fund $4,000 per annum and compound it for 30 years at six per cent, we would have the nice sum of $316,235.63. This is $16,235 64 overplus at the maturity of the $300,000 30 year bonds, so by dropping the payments for the last three years we still have a small surplus. So it is to be plainly seen that by this plan of paying $4,000 a year for 27 years we pay in only $108,000 and the bonds are paid. And by that time we will have had the benefit of the good roads for a quarter of a century, which will have given the entire county big interest all the while.

If you have a better plan, let us hear from you. Now $4,000 a year for a sinking fund, and $12,000 a year for interest on the bonds, making $16,000 per year, in three years will give us a surplus, without raising the road tax one iota. As property and population increases each year with mud roads the increase would be far greater. Voters of Guilford, take the case and give the subject a careful study. I attach the figures referred to, below.

Respectfully,
J. VAN LINDLEY,
President Good Roads Club.

HOW TO THIN PEACHES.

Mr. J. Van Lindley Writes Interestingly of How It Should be Done—Eight Thousand Trees Thinned at Southern Pines.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

I have been asked by some growers how to thin peaches. Now, a little common sense and fair judgment is what is needed.

Thin by taking off all smaller fruit, all that has been affected by curculio (which a good eye can detect in a moment), then all double peaches, as they will not make fine fruit. When this is done, if the tree is yet too full, then thin by leaving the peaches from four to six inches apart, according to the strength of the limb. Some weak, small limbs should be trimmed to six inches, while stronger ones will bear good fruit at four inches apart. This year appears to be a great year for double fruit, and in thinning it is important to take them all off, leaving the single and perfect-shaped ones.

The thinning should be done at once, as it will do no good to thin after the seeds get hard.

It is a tedious business, but it pays. We have had the fruit thinned on eight thousand trees last week at Southern Pines. It took twenty-two hands a week to do the work. The hands were mostly colored women, watched over by a careful foreman.

J. VAN LINDLEY.

To Begin Organizing Democratic Clubs. News and Observer.

Mr. Francis D. Winston, of Bertie county, is at the Yarrowburgh. He came here at the invitation of the executive committee, for the purpose of assisting in organizing White Supremacy Clubs all over the State. During a conversation with him we learned the following facts about the work:

The organization of clubs will be pushed at once by means of an organizer in each county. These organizers will be appointed by the county chairmen, and they will be expected to visit every township in their county and arrange for at least one club there, and in the large townships more than one club will be organized. These clubs will be working bodies and not dress-parade organizations; through them the Democratic party will appeal to the good character and the highest aspirations of the people.

NARROWLY ESCAPED CREMATION

SAVED ONLY BY BRAVERY OF POLICE.

Hotel Helene Burned in Chicago This Morning, and Almost by Accident Two Hundred Persons Were Saved From Cremation—Half of Them Injured—Several Missing.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Chicago, May 16.—The Hotel Helene was burned early this morning. Four chambermaids are missing, ten persons are fatally hurt and a number of other guests were injured by leaping. The flames had made great headway before being discovered. The place had been closed for the night, and had it not been for the bravery of the police, nearly one hundred men would have been cremated. The hotel had 100 rooms and all of them were filled last night.

A policeman first saw the blaze and alarmed the station. Then every policeman in the district ran to the hotel, and, rushing from room to room, awakened the sleepers and helped the panic stricken guests to the streets. The guests ran out in their night clothes, and when the firemen arrived the windows were crowded with shrieking people, many of whom jumped. The firemen caught two women who leaped from the third floor. Six persons braved the trip down the burning corridor. Of the two hundred in the building over one half sustained injuries.

CLARK TO SUCCEED HIMSELF.

Acting Governor Appoints Him to Serve Until Election of His Successor.

Helena, Mont., May 15.—Acting Governor Spriggs tonight appointed W. A. Clark, of Butte, United States Senator to serve until the next legislature shall elect his successor. Senator Clark's resignation was filed early in the day with the Governor and tonight he was appointed by Governor Spriggs to succeed himself. Governor Spriggs has all along been a friend of Senator Clark, during his candidacy for the senatorship and since, although he preserved the utmost impartiality in his office as Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate during the senatorial campaign. Governor Smith, a partisan of the Daly people, left the state two weeks ago for California to attend to some mining cases in which he is retained as attorney. At that time there was no thought of Senator Clark resigning. The resignation filed today came as a surprise to the people of the state, who had no inkling of the coup prepared. During the day Governor Spriggs received a great many telegrams from all over the state urging him to appoint Senator Clark, alleging that he was the real choice of a large majority of the Democrats and a large proportion of the Republicans.

Governor Spriggs was besieged all day individuals and by delegations friendly and hostile to Clark.

Enlistments for Army Service.

During this week the following recruits have enlisted in Greensboro for service in Battery C, Second Artillery: Augustus B. Carpenter, Lincolnton; Joe Wood, Graham, and Charles L. Gardner, Goldsboro. The last named was arrested, as noted in yesterday's Telegram, for obtaining a bicycle under false pretence. He was carried to Goldsboro by an officer from that place last night. Before leaving he expressed his confidence in being able to adjust matters, and said he would return in time to leave for the army post.

Frank J. Burns, of Greensboro, and James H. Sloan, of Salisbury, have enlisted for service in the Philippines. Sloan left today for Columbus Barracks, Ohio.

Circuit Court Adjourns.

Circuit Court convened this morning at 9:30, but on account of the absence of the district attorney and other attorneys interested in the cases set for a hearing, Judge Simonton discharged the jurors and adjourned court sine die.

The term was set for an inconvenient time, inasmuch as it conflicted with the District Court at Asheville and Superior Courts at Salisbury and Winston. Many of the attorneys interested in cases before the Circuit Court were engaged at the other courts.

THE NEW HIGH POINT OFFICERS

Were Elected Last Night—Col. Carr in Town Returning From Old Trinity Where a Good Commencement Was Had.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

High Point, May 16.—North Carolina's distinguished son and gentleman, Gen. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, spent several hours here last night at the Jarrell Hotel on his return home from Old Trinity, where he delivered the annual address before the school yesterday afternoon. Col. Carr spoke here last Fourth of July at the unveiling of the Confederate monument and our people remember him very pleasantly.

There was a full attendance at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen Monday night. Election of officers and committees for the ensuing year was the main business transacted. Mr. L. Flagler was elected secretary and treasurer, Mr. J. T. Bennett, the present incumbent, chief of police. The selection of assistant officer was carried over to next meeting. Mr. Jacob Maynard is street overseer. Messrs. W. P. Pickett, W. G. Bradshaw, Wm. Tate and E. A. Snow are on the school board for three years. Messrs. Jonathan P. Redding and J. W. Sechrest, are street committeemen, and D. H. Hall and J. W. Sechrest will look after the cemetery. Messrs. J. R. Hall and L. Flager are on the police committee.

Messrs. J. J. Welch and Dennis Aldridge will look after the health of the town.

Messrs. J. H. Willis and J. R. Holt have the fire department in hands, and Messrs. J. J. Welch and J. H. Willis will make us good financiers.

The board has made good selections, and the new year starts off promising with municipal affairs in the hands of these gentlemen.

W. J. Armfield, Jr., was here last night.

The postoffice robbery at Randleman is getting close to home, and our citizens will do well to keep their eyes open and their hands upon their guns.

"I tell you, the democrats will have to hustle to win in the August election, for Spence Adams, Pritchard and other big guns of the republican party are fighting that amendment right and left."—Major Watlington, of Caswell county, after his arrival here yesterday.

Alfred M. Scales, Chairman Democratic Executive Committee of Guilford county, was here last night—L. J. Bryant, of Greensboro, was here yesterday—Wilbur W. Jones, of the Raleigh Post, visited us yesterday—Wiley Rush came up from Asheboro last evening—C. H. Snow, Jr., and J. C. Hunt, of Baltimore, were here yesterday on business—G. Rosenthal represented our capitol city here yesterday.

The commencement at Old Trinity was well attended this year and the occasion seemed to be a success in every way. High Point was well represented at all the exercises and, especially last night at the social gathering.

MURDERED UNDER WHITE FLAG.

A HANDFUL OF MEN AMBUSHED.

A Company of Eight Were Foraging, and on Visiting a Farm House Over Which a White Flag Floated Were Shot Down. Glencoe Occupied by Buller.

By Wire to the Telegram.

London, May 16.—Roberts cables from Kroonstadt under date of yesterday that two officers and six men of the Prince Aldridge's guards were foraging a few miles from Kroonstadt, and after visiting a farm house over which a flag was flying and the owner of which surrendered himself with arms and ammunition, they approached another farm, also flying a white flag. When they had proceeded forty yards in the enclosure, they were fired upon by fifteen or sixteen Boers concealed behind the farm walls. Two of the men were killed, one officer wounded, and the other officer and two men were taken prisoners. The owner of the farm says the Boers threatened to shoot him when he protested against the improper use of the white flag.

Buller cables from Dundee this morning that he occupied Glencoe yesterday, and that the Transvaalers have evacuated Biggarsburg.

BATTLE NEWS CONFIRMED.

MacArthur Says the Engagement Occurred—Nineteen Americans Killed. Two Hundred Insurgents Meet the Same Fate.

Washington, May 16.—MacArthur confirms the news of an engagement in which nineteen of the Forty-third Infantry were killed and five wounded, and in which, also, over 200 insurgents were killed.

TO LOCATE A FRUIT FAIR.

Executive Committee of the State Horticultural Society to Meet Here Next Week.

Mr. J. Van Lindley, president of the State Horticultural Society, has called the executive committee to meet in Greensboro next Wednesday, the 23rd. The society has decided to hold a fruit fair at some point in North Carolina this year, and the purpose of the meeting is to decide upon the location.

Several places will offer inducements to secure the fair, for it is recognized as a big advertisement for any town. Being held under the auspices of a State association, it will draw exhibits and visitors from all over North Carolina. The advantages to be derived can be readily observed.

Efforts will be made to secure the fair for Greensboro, and there is no reason why the efforts should not meet with success. Mr. Lindley and other public spirited citizens are interesting themselves in the matter. The promise of a suitable location for the exhibits has already been secured, and all other inducements will doubtless be forthcoming.

In addition to the fact that Greensboro is the railroad center of the State, we are in the midst of the finest fruit section of North Carolina, which makes the Gate City the ideal location for a fruit fair.

A Worthy Colored Institution.

A charitable institution in Greensboro of which the public knows but little is a hospital for colored people on High street, conducted under the management of Rev. S. S. Sevier. The institution is supported by the colored churches and funds from the North. It has been in operation for a year or more and is doing a good work among the class it was designed to benefit.

Colored people are cared for while sick at very reasonable rates, and if unable to pay, they are received into the hospital free of charge. Such institutions accomplish much good, when properly managed.

Democratic Headquarters Opened.

County Democratic headquarters were opened today in room No 208, on the second floor of the Southern Loan and Trust Company building. A supply of Democratic literature will be kept constantly on hand, and Democrats and all others in search of information are invited to call.

The Democratic primaries of Georgia yesterday nominated State officers, and Senator Bacon to succeed himself as United States Senator.

THE APPEAL TO THE COUNTY

REV. MR. McCULLOCH REPLIES TO IT.

Dissents from Some Propositions Set Forth, But Agrees That It Would be Wholly Disastrous to Reopen Saloons.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

In your last Saturday's issue some unknown correspondent makes some statements regarding the dispensary and endeavors to confirm them by the testimony of a number of well known business men and ministers of the city. Much of what he says is undeniable, but on two points I would beg to express dissent.

First, I hold that it is not true that the people of Greensboro should be left to fight alone in removing the drink evil. It concerns every man in the county that strong drink is publicly offered for sale in the county-seat and chief market town of the county. When the time comes that the people of Greensboro have no intercourse with the people of the county outside, then they may with less impertinence say "it is none of your business—leave us to fight it out alone."

Secondly, I cannot endorse the statement that "there has been a notable improvement in sobriety and good order as a result of the dispensary system." It may be so. I do not know what all the facts would reveal. No one has observed all the facts, and to express a confident opinion is reckless. I prefer to judge in this phase of the matter by the experience of communities in which the experiment has been tried longer. The following statement in the leading anti-liquor paper of the country (The New Voice) weighs much more than a hasty opinion formed after a hasty trial:

"The Gothenburg system, after a trial of a third of a century, shows no signs of decreasing the evils that rise from the drink traffic as conducted under other systems. Drunkenness, crime and pauperism are the fruits of the 'philanthropic' liquor traffic in Scandinavia just as of the thug-conducted traffic in America."

This statement appears in the issue of last week, and is based on a careful investigation made by a commissioner sent by that paper to Norway and Sweden to find out the real facts regarding the Gothenburg system.

I agree that it would be a public misfortune—more than that, a crime—to allow the saloons to open again; but I insist that it is a public calamity and a crime to have and consent to have the dispensary in our midst. Who can measure the injury to public conscience by the fact that ministers and leading citizens are lending their support to such an institution? It may be a little harder for the young man to get a drink now, but who can deny that it is much easier for him to get the consent of his mind to take a drink?

If a demon presides over every saloon, it must be that the devil himself devised the dispensary system, for so many good men are deceived into supporting it.

In my humble judgment, the county ought to send men to the legislature who will work for the repeal of the dispensary law and for the enactment of a prohibitory law. I do not see how the conscientious voter of any party can reconcile himself to any other course. To talk about revenue, when sin is the price of it, should be resented as an insult by the voters of Guilford county.

I have tried to "speak the truth in love."

Respectfully,
J. P. McCULLOCH.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other ailments. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

HAD HIMSELF BOUND AND GAGGED.

Chicago Dispatch to New York Sun.

With hands and feet bound and with a gag in his mouth, J. A. Gabrielson lay on the floor of a drugstore at 1770 West Chicago avenue early yesterday morning and waited for the proprietor to come and open the store. H. J. Adis, the owner of the store, arrived at 7 o'clock and to his amazement found his clerk lying behind the counter on his back with his arms tied under him and his feet bound fast together, while a hankerchief filled his mouth. Things in the store were upset.

When Adis took away the handkerchief Gabrielson related the tale. He said that a man wearing fine clothes and a silk hat had him up at 3 o'clock in the morning, and that when he opened the door the stranger had presented a revolver at his head and ordered him to hold up his hands, which he did. The robber, Gabrielson said, then backed him into the store, ordered him to lie down, and then bound and gagged him. Having done this, the robber searched the store and appropriated several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry and $65.

Mr. Adis cut the bonds of his clerk and notified the West Lake street police. Lieut. Beard and Policemen Neilson and Newman went to work on the case, which appeared to be one of the most daring cases of robbery of the year. At the end of a few hours' work Beard decided to arrest Gabrielson.

The young man was locked up in a cell, stoutly affirming his previous story. A few interviews with the police induced him to change his mind, however, and he made a full confession. He told the police that Alexander Reick, a clerk in a pawnshop at Thirty-fifth and State streets, was implicated with him in the conspiracy to rob the druggist. Reick was arrested later and locked up.

Gabrielson said that Reick had bound him and stuffed the handkerchief in his mouth about 6 o'clock.

Gabrielson is 20 years old. He was formerly a student at Northern University and told the police his object in committing the robbery was to get funds with which to complete his education.

He Got the Gun.

Several years ago Colonel Jack Chinn visited Texas. He brought with him a negro valet, Sam. This negro had been a slave in the Chinn family before the war began in the states and idolized his young master. One night while in Houston the darky came to Chinn and said:

"Massa Jack, I've got in out of collud society heah tonight, an I'd like to borrow dat ivory handled six shooter of yours to take along."

"Why, you black rascal," returned the colonel, "some of these Houston coons will take that gun away from you and break it over your head!"

The darky straightened up. Like his master, he was a man of unquestioned nerve, and there was a peculiar glitter in his eye as he said:

"Massa Jack, you let me hab dat gun, an if I don't show up heah wid hit in de mawnin you can go down to de morgue an throw down de sheet an say, 'Lawd, don't he look nacherl!'"

Colonel Chinn's body servant was that night armed in a manner that entitled him to move in the best circles of Afro-American society in Houston.—Dallas News.

The Valet; His Opportunity.

The Comte de Brienne, talking of the violence of some masters toward their servants, said that on one occasion, having corrected his valet for some grave dereliction of duty, he had forgotten the matter when the next morning, while shaving him, the man suddenly held the razor to his throat, saying, "Whose turn is it today, M. le Comte?"

"A moi toujours; continue," was the calm reply.

"He finished shaving me, and we were mutually pleased with each other," but relations became somewhat strained after such an incident, and the comte gave him 100 louis and his dismissal. "Never beat your servants, young men," he concluded; "your lives are at their mercy, and you would find it hard, as I did, to owe it to one of them."—Cornhill Magazine.

"Yes, we will call it the Great American Dietary Sausage company," interrupted the major, "and as purchasing agent we'll deposit $500,000 to your credit to start on; salary to be paid weekly or monthly, just as you elect, and the dividends on the stock to come quarterly. I need $10 to see my way clear, but if you can't spare that sum give me $5. And there you are, sir; there you are."

"But I haven't got $5."

"Don't neglect this golden opportunity, my dear contemporary; don't do it. The man who invented the Welsh rabbit made $3,000,000 and lived to be 90 years old. Angel cake brought its inventor $1,000,000 while he lived and a monument 40 feet high after death. Hoky poky ice cream won't be in it with dietary sausage. Peanut brittle and lobster salad have already gone to the rear. Why, sir, any moment a telegram boy may come in with a 'Congratulations on your dietary; have only eaten one barrel and am sure I shall be renominated. Send another by express.' The very next mail will probably bring unsolicited testimonials from a dozen actresses and four or five senators. It is needless for me to tell you that delays are dangerous. Time, tide and the dietary sausage wait for no man. If you haven't got $5, I'll try and make $3 do. Leave your name and $3."

"The 'Life of Napoleon'—"

"Never mind the 'Life of Napoleon,' my boy. Napoleon was a great man, but Major Crofoot wasn't on earth then. We are not delving in the past, but digging into the future. Where Napoleon made $100 you'll make $5,000. Let others conquer the world by force of arms if they will, but we'll conquer it by force of dietary sausage. You've certainly got $2 about you. I want to get the organization perfected today."

"I've—I've only got a dollar," stammered the canvasser as he exhibited the bill.

"Well, I'll take it and make it go as far as it will," replied the major as the greenback changed hands. "You'll feel safer for having invested money in the enterprise. Stock will be ready in about two weeks, and as soon as we can erect and equip a factory you'll begin purchasing stock. Yes, I'll make the dollar do, and you'd better begin posting up on meats. When we once get started!"

"But I came up here to sell you this book!"

"When we once get started, we'll use up at least 1,000 tons per week, and you must be able to tell at a glance whether the meat is juicy enough for our purpose. That's all, and there you are, and I'll send for you when the papers are ready to be signed. I think we'll make the ground floor price on stock 20 cents, but maybe we can scale that figure down a little. At any rate, there you are, and you can have every confidence that your canvassing days are ended. Turn to the right, please, and good day—good day."

"But listen a minute. I came up here to sell you!"

"And don't give me away—don't do it," cautioned the major as he pushed his caller along. "Just keep mum and saw wood until our patent is secured, and then we'll jump on the whole world with both feet and boom dietary sausage even to the drawing rooms of royalty. Ground floor—$15,000 per year—golden opportunity. Don't miss it."

A minute later the canvasser found himself on the street, and when he was asked what had happened him that he looked so put out he replied:

"Why, I went up to sell a man a $3.50 subscription book, and I'll be hanged if he didn't turn me out and get my only dollar in cash besides!"

Sustaining His Theory.

No man is a real man of science unless he is ready to abandon his own conclusions, duly put on record, if subsequent investigations prove them fallacious. The president of a great college once wrote a volume on the practice of medicine. After it had been completed and he had gone to New York to arrange for its publication his house was burned, and the manuscript of his book and all his notes were destroyed.

He couldn't reproduce it. Ten years afterward he said: "That fire was the greatest of good fortune to me. If I had published the book, I should have had to stand by it, whereas now I know that it was all wrong!"

Mr. Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine tells of two geologists who were gathering specimens in a lonely mountain place. One of them had written a book. The other, looking about one day with a fieldglass, saw his friend occupied a long time—unobserved, as he thought—in rolling a great stone down hill and at dinner questioned him about it.

He pretended at first that he had been doing it for exercise, but, hard pressed, confessed:

"Well, the fact is the confounded thing was 200 feet too high to suit my theory!"

Peas and beans are the most nutritious of vegetables, containing as much carbon as wheat and double the amount of muscle forming food.

Why He Bought Wholesale.

The slender stranger had just bought a dollar's worth of "L" tickets and was folding them when the man from Harlem asked:

"Why?"

It is so seldom that a New Yorker asks a reason for anything that the slim stranger explained. "Because one ticket seller in the 'L' is a sleight of hand artist," said he. "I offered a $5 bill in payment for a single ticket a few weeks ago and ought to have received $4.95 in change. I counted it twice and could make out but $4.70. I pushed it back to the ticket man, and he at once pushed it back to me, gruffly saying, 'Can't you count?' and as he said it I saw a quarter fall into the pile of change from the palm that pushed it. I retorted, 'It's all right now,' and pocketed the money without recounting it. He saw that I had observed the trick, and the look he gave me would have made me feel weak if I had not been through the same experience shortly before at the same window."

"Since then I have bought my tickets by the dollar's worth, as it is easy to count change in even dollars and puts less temptation in the way of the ticket man."—New York Mail and Express.

Took a Costly Nap.

To begin with he's "a good fellow." That's a phrase easier understood by men than by women. It generally means—well, it means he's an all round good sort in the male line.

Saturday afternoon he was feeling pretty good. He had been quite thirsty if what he had taken was to be judged as a criterion. And the libations left him in a thoroughly good humor, and he felt at peace with the world.

In this delightful mental and physical state he bethought him of a friend of his in Providence, and he further thought that he would call up that particular friend on the telephone.

So he went to a Broad street hotel, told the young woman there who had charge of the telephone that he wanted to speak to Mr. So-and-so in Providence and wouldn't she kindly call up the party.

The girl did as she was bade. "Party's on the 'phone," she said, and the man went into the telephone box, sat down and put the receiver to his ear.

And then he calmly and sweetly dropped off to sleep.

When he woke up, he owed the telephone company $32.90.

He said he wouldn't pay it, but he did.—Philadelphia Press.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRH—DIS EASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air, blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure and so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

W. A. Fields, Proprietor. B. Reid, Mgr. Phone 176.

If they only could, many rich men would erase the W in wealth and write H in its place, and so change wealth into health. It's the saddest thing about riches that in acquiring them men often ruin their health and at their prime are doomed to live "perked up in a glistering grief and wear a golden sorrow."

The trouble is generally with the stomach. In the rush for riches there's been no time for regularity, no consideration of right food. The stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition become diseased and then begins the bitter and varied sufferings of the man with "stomach trouble."

Yet this condition can be cured. The stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, can be restored to a normal condition of sound health. Thousands testify that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, strengthens the stomach, nourishes the nerves and purifies the blood, that it breaks the bonds of the dyspeptic, and makes him a healthy, happy man. No alcohol whisky or other intoxicant is contained in "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I was a sufferer from what the doctors called indigestion, but after trying several eminent physicians failed to get a cure," writes Mr. Frank Mericle, P. O. Box 473, Independence, Jackson Co., Mo. "Some of my symptoms were soreness in pit of stomach, fullness, tired feeling, constipation; some times soreness would extend to bowels. Some one recommended me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which I did, and after taking only a few bottles of 'Discovery' and your 'Pleasant Pellets' can say I derived more benefit from them than from any other medicine I ever tried. I began to gain in flesh from the start. Have recommended it to others and will continue to do so."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do not become a necessity to the system they have relieved of accumulations and obstructions.

TEDDY'S LATEST VICTORY.

The Honorable Theodore Roosevelt, Governor of the Empire State, is often written down by enthusiasts as an ideal citizen. He may not be that, but he is awonderfully successful man. He was a success at college; he was successful in being a cowboy and in running a ranch, two of which latter, we believe, he now owns. He got on the police board of New York, and served with distinction. Then he became assistant secretary of the navy, got everything in readiness for the Spanish war before anyone dreamed that it would come, and prepared the way for Dewey's before-breakfast breakdown at Manila. Then when the war came he raised his famous regiment of Rough Riders and whipped the Spaniards. Then he wrote the Round Robin. And then, upon his triumphal return, the people made him governor of New York. Since that time he has been very successful in telling for various magazines and periodicals, how he did it all.

But his latest success is even greater than any preceding one. The Republicans, always casting about for the purpose of securing the services of any gentlemen possessed of popularity, jumped upon Teddy as a suitable man who should run for the vice-presidency. But Teddy said no, it was not possible that one so accustomed to lead should be second man to anybody. He would be first or none. But the Republicans insisted, until Teddy was finally compelled to go to Washington, fight his latest battle, and score his usual success. He has just been in Capital city, and has been very successful in overriding the intention of the slate makers to make him vice-president. To do this Roosevelt expected to find a hard job. But it was dead easy. The powers readily fell a victim to his ever victorious march and he overcame them. He will not be a candidate for the office. He has defeated his opposers once again.

The North Carolina dailies have improved greatly in the past five years, not only in form, but also in the facility with which they gather and print the news of the day.—Charlotte News.

The daily papers have improved immensely in this State in the times specified by the News. With all our growth in various ways, nothing has been more gratifying than the development of our daily newspapers. The weeklies have not kept pace in improvements. Indeed, the dailies are fast overshadowing and to some extent crowding out the weeklies.

The writer had occasion a few days ago to drive over some miles of macadamized roads in Mecklenburg county, and, a few days later, over a few miles of Guilford's unmacadamized roads. This is the season of the year when the old unmacadamized road shows to best advantage, because the road is dry and hard and, at least, free from mud. But even now these roads show to a great disadvantage. Spinning along over a smooth rock road is quite a different thing at any time of the year from jolting and jumping over hills and into holes; different for man, beast and vehicle. We do not make this comparison for the purpose of disparaging our own county. We have these better roads within our reach if we will but bestir ourselves. Guilford county is a great county, the home of thrift and intelligence, and she needs only good roads to make her the leading county of the state.

Newberne yesterday decided by a big majority vote to buy and operate the water and sewerage plant of the city. In this Newberne is only putting itself along the line of modern methods. The day when private corporations will own such public necessities is doomed.

You never know what a man may have up his sleeve. Here was Senator Clark yesterday speaking in his own behalf and everybody expected him to put up as pitiful a whine as Roberts did, when he made the coup of resigning. The acting Governor of Montana has appointed him to fill out his own unexpired term, and there you are.

Trouble in the Johnson Family.

George Johnson was tried before the Mayor this morning for an assault with a deadly weapon on Fannie and Mary Johnson. The warrant also called for the arrest of Will Johnson, but he could not be found. When the trial came off Fannie and Mary and one other witness, Annie Roney, put all the blame on the absent Will, swearing that George had nothing to do with the affray, acting only as a pacifier. Upon this evidence the Mayor ordered the warrant dismissed as to George.

Just as he was about leaving the room he was arrested on another warrant and carried back to jail. When he next comes before the Mayor he will be called upon to answer the charge of gambling.

The members of the Daughters of the Confederacy who have not yet paid their dues are earnestly requested to come prepared to pay them on Saturday.

The buildings and plant of the Washington Hydraulic Press Brick Company at Waterloo, Virginia, about two miles from Washington, were entirely destroyed by fire last night. Loss upwards of $50,000, fully covered by insurance.

The attempt of Mr. English, director of public safety for Philadelphia, to force Mr. John Wanamaker to stop his newspaper attack on Mayor Ashbridge, was referred to by a number of preachers in Philadelphia in their Sunday discourses, and in every instance Mr. Wanamaker was sustained.

At Montgomery, Ala., warrants have been sworn out for the arrest of Warren S. Reese, Julian H. Bingham and Frank Morgan under a charge of conspiracy to kill certain doorkeepers at the State capitol on the day of the Republican State convention, April 19th.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

A Dangerous Hallucination.
I saw a shrewd and successful gentleman who, on my being introduced, said he was glad to have a talk with a nerve doctor, for he thought there was something wrong. Then he told his tale, which was that he was pestered by gangs of gypsies who appeared everywhere. He said that he had just come in from chasing them in his garden, for wherever he looked out he saw them pulling up his shrubs. I said: "But the shrubs are not removed. How do you account for this?"

He said: "Well, it is hard to tell, but I still feel they do it, and when I wake in the morning I see the same gypsies using my toothbrush and my hairbrushes. I jump up, only to find they have disappeared." He admitted the absurdity of the whole thing, but yet he said he felt it was true, and he must act upon his belief.

What might have proved a serious loss followed the persistent hallucinations, for before I insisted on his withdrawing from all business he had on one holiday gone to his office to look through his private safe with its very valuable securities. Before leaving he thought he saw his son in the adjoining office and told him to put the things away and to lock the safe. The son was a hallucination, and it was only by accident that the son discovered the state of affairs before others arrived next day.—London Lancet.

Why Americans Win.

One of the many reasons why American manufacturers are so successfully competing in foreign markets is to be found in the following episode which occurred recently: An American manufacturer of steam specialties was visiting an English firm which made similar goods. A certain article which both firms made was under discussion. "What is your price on this thing?" asked the American.

"Well, in your money, about $19," replied the Englishman. "What does it cost you?"

"I'll deliver at your door all you want at $7 apiece," said the American.

"How in the world do you do it?" "Well, I'll illustrate," answered the American. "Look out of that window and across the street. See that man painting a sign?"

"Yes."

"He's on a ladder, isn't he?"

"Yes."

"See that other man sitting on the sidewalk holding the foot of the ladder?"

"Yes."

"Now, in America we have ladders that stand up by themselves—don't need a man to hold 'em. So, you see, in this instance we divide your cost of labor exactly by two."

"I see," remarked the Englishman.—Electrical Review.

To Have Good Teeth.

All persons, old and young, should have their teeth examined once every six months by a competent dentist. Decay will be present and tartar forming which nothing but a thorough examination will reveal. Professional service rendered in time means high class work, less pain and great economy. A tooth filled when decay is slight will not be sensitive, the operation not long and the filling lasting, because the operator has more and better structure to work on. He is enabled to make the walls of the cavity thicker and stronger and with slight danger of exposing the nerve, the dread and fear of all when having teeth filled. Have your teeth attended to in time. Do not procrastinate. Give the dentist good tooth structure to work upon, and he will render you excellent service. One person in a hundred has good teeth; 99 persons in 100 could have good teeth with the proper attention.—H. G. Vorhies, D. D. S., in Woman's Home Companion.

Charlotte News

The eight-page form is becoming popular in this State. For two years the News was the only eight-page evening newspaper in the State, but now the Asheville Citizen and Greensboro Telegram have adopted that form, one having six columns, the other five columns. There are four morning dailies that issue eight pages, the Raleigh News and Observer, Raleigh Post, Charlotte Observer and Asheville Gazette. The first eight-page daily in the State was the Wilmington Messenger, under the late J. A. Bonitz. But it has for several years issued four pages. There is not a single newspaper in either North Carolina or Virginia issued every day in the week.

Cromwell Was a Ruthless Victor.

We must remember always that under Cromwell there was no burning at the stake, no dreadful torture in cold blood, and therefore at his worst he rises in degree above Philip and Alva. But in kind his deeds in Ireland were the same as theirs in the Netherlands, and, though the Puritan soldiers were guiltless of the hideous licentiousness shown by the Spaniards or by the armies of Tilly and Wallenstein, yet the merciless butchery of the entire garrisons and of all the priests—accompanied by the slaughter of other noncombatants in at least some cases—leave Drogheda and Wexford as black and terrible stains on Cromwell's character.

Cromwell and his lieutenants put down the insurrection and established order because they gained such sweeping victories, not because Cromwell made merciless use of his first victories. It was the fighting of the Puritans in the battle itself which won and not their ferocity after the battle, and it was Cromwell who not merely gave free rein to this ferocity, but inspired it. Seemingly quarter would have been freely given had it not been for his commands. Neither in morals nor in policy were these slaughters justifiable. Moreover, it must be remembered that the men slaughtered were entirely guiltless of the original massacres in Ulster.—Theodore Roosevelt in Scribner's.

Politeness Wasted.

A guileless rustic who wished to become attached to one of our railways emerged from the examination room and informed the expectant relatives that he had failed to pass the sight test.

"Why, you can't have!" exclaimed the father, who was horrified at the thought. "You're no more color blind than I am."

"Happen not, but they won't have me," answered the rustic bitterly. "It all comes o' trying to be polite an obliging, as you said I was to be, feyther."

"But I can't see how being polite could make any difference," quavered the father.

"It did, though," said the rustic. "The old chap held something up an says: 'This is green, isn't it? Come, now, isn't it green?' quite pleading like, and, though I could see it wor red, I couldn't find it in my 'art to tell him he wor wrong for fear he might take offense. So I simply said, 'It is, yer honor,' an they bundled me out. No more politeness for me. It don't pay."—London Answers.

Marrying For Money.

A decrepit old negress, with a deformed back and a few discolored fangs in the place of teeth, called one day upon a gentleman who had been her employer and announced, "Mistah, Ise gwine ter git married."

"Get married, auntie!" exclaimed the man. "Why, I'm surprised! Isn't the change a little sudden?"

"Yes, to'able sudden, but bettah late than nebber."

"Oh, well," answered the friend politely, "a lady is never too old to marry, I suppose—if she falls in love!"

"But I'ze not fallen in lub!"

"Going to marry for money?" sarcastically.

"Yes, sah, dat am de solemn troof. It's money. Ise 'gaged ter Billy Jones."

"Why, Billy's only 25, and you must be 45!"

"Yes, sah, dat's so, but I'ze now pay-in Billy fifty dollahs a yeah for rent, an I'ze gwine ter marry him ter save dat er mount."—Atlanta Constitution.

NEXT DOOR TO THE EXPRESS OFFICE

AT WHITSETT INSTITUTE.

A Lengthy and Interesting Program for Commencement.

The exercises preliminary to commencement have begun at Whitsett Institute. An interesting program, consisting of declamation contests, debates, social reunions, etc., has been prepared.

This evening at 8 o'clock will occur the annual debate of the Dialectic Literary Society. The members of the Athenian Society will hold their annual debate Saturday evening.

Rev. Charles B. King, president of Elizabeth College, Charlotte, will preach the annual sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

A reunion of the literary societies will be held Tuesday afternoon.

Wednesday, the 23rd, will be commencement day proper. The literary address will be delivered by Mr. Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh. The exercises of the day will be followed by a concert at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Never Admit Defeat.

Never admit defeat or poverty, though you seem to be down and have not a cent. Stoutly assert your divine right to be a man, to hold your head up and look the world in the face. Step bravely to the front whatever opposes, and the world will make way for you. No one will insist upon your rights while you yourself doubt that you possess the qualities requisite for success. Never allow yourself to be a traitor to your own cause by undermining your self confidence.

There never was a time before when persistent, original force was so much in demand as now. The namby pamby, nerveless man has little show in the hustling world of today. In the twentieth century a man must either push or be pushed.

Every one admires the man who can assert his rights and has the power to demand and take them if denied to him. No one can respect the man who slinks in the rear and apologizes for being in the world. Negative virtues are of no use in winning one's way. It is the positive man, the man with original energy and push, that forges to the front—Success.

An Easy Conscience.

"You told me," remonstrated the lawyer in an injured tone, "that you had spent nearly every cent you embezzled from the firm. That is why I charged you only $200 for clearing you. Yet you spend money now like a man with a trunkful of it."

"Certainly," responded the other. "Did you think it would hurt my conscience any worse to cheat a lawyer than it did to steal from the people I was working for?"—Chicago Tribune.

The Hungry Half Hour.

The hungry half hour that so often comes before bedtime can be appetizingly catered to by the "cheese crackers." Take any of the popular luncheon crackers on the market, and their name is legion, and spread with a little butter and sprinkle lightly with grated Parmesan cheese. Place on a dish in the oven long enough to brown them slightly. They are good when thus prepared if kept for several days. —New York World.

Man and His Mother-in-law.

Much has been written about the mother-in-law, nearly all of it in complaining jest. In all of the flippant literature on this subject there is only one point worthy of consideration—that the writers, almost invariably men, have never tried to veil their sincerity. This is a tribute from man, even in his most playful moods, to the substantial worth of his mother-in-law. —New York Sun.

BISMARCK'S IRON NERVES

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 5c at Holton's drug store.

AN ANCIENT BELIEF.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of static or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the affliction is demonic enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

No Cur—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price 50c.

WINE OF CARDUI

HEALTHY OLD AGE.

LARUE, BENTON CO. ARK., Aug. 4.
I am 49 years old and have been suffering with Change of Life. I had flooding spells so bad that none thought I could live. My husband got me Wine of Cardui and it saved my life. I am like another person since taking it.

MRS. E. B. TOWNSEND.

Wine of Cardui

It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age. None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

"DANGER IN THE EARTH AND AIR; DANGER EVERYWHERE."

In a leading hotel, in a great city, a famous and aged physician was conversing. Listening to his wise and sententious discourse, were a group of well dressed men, evidently lawyers, business men and commercial travelers. My firm belief, is "that medical science is certain yet to show that all diseases without exception are caused by invisible germs which are living organisms. Here is the germ of that terrible disease diphtheria. Here is the bacillus of typhoid fever; and here is the still more dreadful bacillus of tubercle which causes that most destructive of all diseases, consumption. This of that very common and supposed incurable disease, catarrh."

"I wish, Doctor," said the traveling man, "that you would tell us about catarrh. I have had it for years, and I am thoroughly discouraged." The Doctor answered, "Catarrh, like diphtheria, consumption, typhoid fever, and a host of other diseases, is the result of a microbe invading the blood and attacking specially the mucous membrane. This foul and most disgusting disease is especially prevalent in the United States and it is rare to meet one who is not, or has not been troubled more or less with it. How often is he or she obliged to remain at home from pleasant entertainments, deprive themselves of many intellectual treats, from fear of the disagreeable odor arising from catarrhal affections. In its worst phase, the patient becomes loathsome both to himself and his friends."

"I believe," continued this great physician, "that the true way to heal catarrh is to medicate the blood. This can be done only by powerful alteratives which act as blood purifiers."

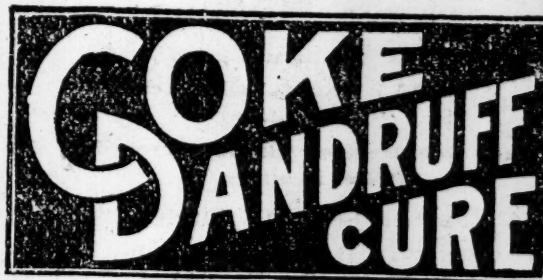

Betsy A. Maret, of Manistee, Manistee Co., Mich., writes:
Dear Sirs:—For ten years I was a sufferer from general debility and chronic catarrh. My face was pale as death. I was weak and short of breath. I could hardly walk, I was so dizzy and had a ringing in my head all the time. My hands and feet were always cold. My appetite was very poor. On getting up in the morning, my head swam so I was often obliged to lie down again. I had awful pains in the small of my back. I had a continual feeling of tiredness. My muscular power was almost entirely gone, and I couldn't go half a dozen steps without stopping to rest, and often that much exercise caused me to have a pain in my side. It seemed as though the blood had left my veins. The doctors said my blood had all turned to water. I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I tried the best physicians in the state, but failed to get any relief. My husband got me a bottle of Johnston's Sarsaparilla. I took it, and then I bought another. When these had been used, I was somewhat improved in health. I continued its use, and felt I was growing stronger; my sleep was refreshing, and it seemed as if I could feel new blood moving through my veins. I kept on taking it, and now consider myself a well and rugged woman. I work all the time, and am happy. I am positive that the Sarsaparilla saved my life. The sick headaches I have had since childhood, have disappeared, and my catarrh has almost entirely left me. I cannot be too thankful for what Johnston's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I recommend all women who have sick headaches to use your Sarsaparilla.

THE WEATHER.

Fair and continued warm tonight. Thursday partly cloudy with probably thunder storms and cooler weather in the afternoon or evening in central and western portions, winds mostly fresh from the south. Highest temperature at Greensboro during twenty-four hours ending at 8 a. m. today 92, lowest 61.

A DAY IN GREENSBORO.

Minor Occurrences Briefly Recorded for Busy Readers.

At their lawn party tomorrow night the firemen will have accommodations sufficient for serving 200 people at once.

Admiral Dewey passed through this morning on a special train of three cars. He was returning to Washington from Knoxville, Tenn.

The firemen have bought fifty gallons of ice cream for their lawn party tomorrow night, and have arranged for 100 gallons, if necessary.

A plate glass was this afternoon placed in one of the windows in Shrier's shoe store to replace the glass broken by burglars some time ago.

The names of the young ladies who are requested to wait on the tables at the firemen's lawn party tomorrow night were omitted today for lack of space.

The weather is a gentle reminder of the pleasure to be derived from the firemen's lawn party tomorrow night. The Ekle lawn, on South Davis street, is the place.

Buena Vista Lodge of Odd Fellows is steadily growing in numbers. At last night's meeting Messrs. T. C. McCorkle and T. C. Gayle were given the first degree.

You Are Invited.

Everybody is most cordially invited to attend the strawberry and ice cream outing on the Ekle lawn tomorrow night. The Gate City Band will furnish music. Meet your friends and enjoy yourself, at the same time helping the firemen. Your presence and patronage will be appreciated.

A Moonlight Picnic.

A number of South Greensboro young people enjoyed an outing and moonlight picnic at Guilford Battle Ground last night. The party was composed of the following young ladies and gentlemen:

Misses May Williams, of Reidsville, Lucy Jones, Ruby Glascock, Sallie Love, Bertha Jones, Maggie Kelly, and Messrs. T. A. Glascock, C. E. Brower, Sidney Peters, Charles Hudson, Will Fields, Joe Phillips and Luke Glascock.

Taking a Short Rest.

Hon. Charles B. Aycock came over from Reidsville this morning and spent the greater part of the day here taking a needed rest. He left on the 4:15 train for Mt. Airy, where he speaks tonight.

Yesterday he spoke in Wentworth to 1,000 people and in Reidsville last night to a crowd estimated at 3,000.

While in Greensboro Mr. Aycock was greeted by many of our people and made to feel at home. The courtesies of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association were extended to him.

To the General Conference,

A number of persons left today for Atlantic City, N. J., to attend the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. The party leaving Greensboro was composed of the following ministers and laymen: Revs. T. M. Johnson, J. R. Hutton and C. A. Ceoll, Greensboro; W. A. Bunch, Tabernacle, and G. F. Milloway, Kimesville; Messrs. R. H. Brooks, Greensboro; W. P. Pickett, High Point, and R. T. Pickens, Lexington.

The party will stop over in Washington tonight, spending a day there sight-seeing. They will be absent about ten days or two weeks.

TODAY is the time to act. See Drs. Moore; their glasses will protect and save your sight. 2t.

A Costa Rican Wonder.

"The National Theater, at San Jose, Costa Rica, is a wonder," said a gentleman who has recently returned from that city. "In point of beauty it is said to stand third among houses of its kind in the world. It cost $3,000,000 to erect, and the work of construction occupied many years. The design follows the Grand Opera House of Paris in a general way, although of course the building is very much smaller, and the material is white marble and Mexican onyx. The main entrance hall and foyers contain some superb pieces of statuary, and the decorations were done by European artists of reputation.

"When a visitor sees it for the first time, standing in the midst of a straggling little Central American capital, with a suburban jumble of mud built adobe huts, he feels like pinching himself to find out whether he isn't dreaming. The people of San Jose are immensely proud of the house, as they well may be, but they are so far away from amusement centers that the only regular performances are by an opera company hired by the government in France or Italy for a brief season every year.

"It is an interesting fact that all the Central American capitals have disproportionately fine theaters, kept up by the government. The revolutionary presidents have found it good policy to amuse the people. It takes the place of public improvements."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Burglars' Terror.

A burglar, well known to the police of the larger cities, who was recently taken into custody, told a reporter that "a little dog" was more terrifying to the "profession" than any burglar alarm or detective.

"Guns be blown!" said he. "I'm dead will'n to take a chance wid a fly cop, too, and the tinklers and sitch ain't troublin me a little bit. But a bit of a dorg! Yessir, I hates them little 'purps' worse'n poison. The big fellers—St. Bernards and them—you kin make friends with. Give them a bit of meat and they're all right. But when one of them little dorgs comes at you, a-barkin and yelpin, you got to skin out quick or you finds the hull house a-top of you.

"There ain't no makin friends with them. They know you don't b'long there, and they're just a-goin to git you out or know the reason why! The 'Come, Fido, nice doggy,' racket ain't a-goin to help you at all. There's only one thing to do when them little fellers gets to hollerin round your heels. Just git out as fast as you kin git! Nine times out of ten that ain't fast enuff, neither!"—New York Mail and Express.

Dorothy in England.

Do you realize how many children are named Dorothy? A children's hospital in London not long ago asked every child in England named Dorothy to contribute a shilling toward a bed to be called by that name. The result was enough money to found a dozen beds, showing that there are thousands and thousands of children named Dorothy living in England alone.—Aitchison Globe.

It never offends a woman when her doctor or preacher scolds her; she considers that is his way of "taking an interest" in her.—Aitchison Globe.

The largest city in the country in Washington's time was Philadelphia. It had 69,000 inhabitants.
